

INFINITY PARK™
Event Center
 VILLAGE OF GLENDALE

CONFERENCE ROOMS & BOARDROOM

Located on level two of the Event Center, Infinity Park offers two conference rooms and one executive boardroom. The earth tones that occur in the Grand Foyer and International Ballroom continue in these rooms. The conference rooms are equipped with portable conference style tables and offer the following equipment: dry erase board, wall mounted 65" flat panel televisions with plug and play capabilities, projection screen, in-room audio and background house sound. The portable conference tables and chairs allow for flexible room layout, accommodating your needs. There is a movable partition separating Conference Rooms I and II.

The boardroom is oblong and accommodates 14 in executive style chairs, and features similar audio/visual elements. All equipment provided in the room is for your use at no additional charge. Should you choose for any audio/visual equipment or an A/V manager on site, additional fees will be assessed.
